

Nomination Invited for Nehru and Tagore Literacy Awards for the year 2023, 2024 & 2025

Nominations Invited: The Indian Adult Education Association invites nominations for Nehru and Tagore Literacy Awards for the outstanding work done in promoting literacy, adult education, continuing education and lifelong education.

Nehru Literacy Award instituted in 1968 is given to institutions/individuals in recognition of the services rendered and meritorious work done for the promotion of literacy and adult education in the country. Tagore Literacy Award instituted in 1987 is given to those institutions/individuals who have given significant contributions for the promotion of literacy, adult and lifelong education, creating awareness and improving the social and economic status of women in the country.

The institutions/individuals nominated for Awards should have at least ten years of outstanding work in the field of literacy, adult education, continuing education and lifelong education and the assessment will be on the new initiatives taken and the extent to which the work done can be a model for replication by others. The awardees will be selected on merit from the names nominated by reputed individuals, institutions and Life and Institutional members of IAEA.

The last date for receipt of nominations for both the Awards is October 31, 2026.

Nominations may be sent in a sealed envelope addressed to Shri Suresh Khandelwal, General Secretary, Indian Adult Education Association, 17-B, Indraprastha Estate, New Delhi-110002 with all details about the institution or individual recommended, outstanding work done, award(s) received, if any, and specific recommendation for nominating the institution or individual. One can nominate more than one institution or individual but each one should be in a separate envelope.

Please note that the decision of the Selection Committee is final.
